How you should read this policy

The laws of South Africa govern this Policy.

This document is the legal and official version of your Policy. For any question or dispute, you must refer to this document. If anything is unclear in the Policy wording, please contact Travel Insurance Sales and Services.

Words in the singular (person) include the plural (persons). Words in the masculine gender (he) include the feminine gender (she).

All words beginning with a capital letter in this Policy have a specific meaning, wherever they appear. You will find the word, with its specific meaning, in the Definitions.

In this Policy, the following words have the following meaning:

- We/Our/Us: AIG South Africa Limited, the company that underwrites this Policy.
- You/Your: The Policyholder or the Insured Person.

Please note:

AIG is subject to compliance with US sanctions laws. For this reason, this policy does not cover any loss, injury, damage or liability, benefits or services directly or indirectly arising from or relating to a planned or actual trip to or through Cuba, Iran, Syria, Sudan, North Korea or the Crimea region. In addition, this policy does not cover any loss, injury, damage or liability to residents of Cuba, Iran, Syria, Sudan, North Korea or the Crimea region. Lastly, this policy will not cover any loss, injury, damage or legal liability sustained directly or indirectly by any individual or entity identified on any applicable government watch lists as a supporter of terrorism, narcotics or human trafficking, piracy, proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, organized crime, malicious cyber activity, or human rights abuses.

You must always provide us with complete, correct and truthful information or your claim will be rejected.

Insured persons

Any person, between the ages of 3 months up to and including 75 years of age, whose Public Conveyance tickets have been charged to a valid Standard Bank Card Division card.

Summary of Benefits

The table below sets out the maximum benefit amount per Insured Person for each insured event. The total limit refers to the maximum amount that we will pay for more than one Insured Event resulting from the same incident.

Please check your Policy to ensure the cover is adequate for your needs. Contact us if you want to amend, extend, or alter your Policy. These changes will not apply to policies with existing claims. Please note that changing your Policy could increase your premium.

If an insured Child dies in an Accident, we will pay the amount legislated by law at the time of the death. We only cover permanently employed adults for Permanent Total Disability. Children, pensioners and homemakers are therefore excluded.

Please note, for some Insured Events you will have to pay a portion of each claim; this is the excess amount.

General terms and conditions

1. Age limits

1.1 This Policy covers any event which happens to an Insured Person who is:

- From the age of 3 months up to and including 75 years of age at the date of such event on the Optional cover.

1.2 With respect to Permanent Total Disability under Insured Event 2, cover ceases on the Insured Person's 65th birthday unless he is gainfully employed.

2. Airlines

The Company will have no liability to pay any benefit in relation to any Insured Event for which the Insured Person may be able to seek compensation from an airline. If the Insured Person proves that he has taken all reasonable and necessary steps to claim from the airline, the Company will pay a pro-rata portion of the benefits. The Company's liability will be calculated by reducing the benefits by the amount for which the Company considers the airline to be liable.

3. Automatic Extension

If an event occurs after commencement of the Insured Journey giving rise to a legitimate claim under 1.1 Emergency medical, the Insured Journey shall automatically be extended.

4. Currency

All amounts are shown in South African Rand (ZAR). If expenses are incurred in a foreign currency the rate of exchange used will be the rate at the time of incurring the expense or suffering a loss.

5. Endorsements

At the discretion of the Company, this Policy may be extended, amended or altered. Provided that application is made in writing to the Company prior to the expiry of the existing Policy and there are neither existing nor initiated claims on the existing Policy. This Policy may be extended, amended or altered at the discretion of the Company. The Company may choose to charge an additional premium.

6. Information

By acceptance of this contract of insurance or the benefits under this Policy the Policyholder or Insured Person acknowledges that the sharing of claims and underwriting information by the Company is essential to enable the Company to underwrite policies, assess risks fairly, ensure compliance with all and necessary applicable legislation, regulations and business compliance requirements (including any overseas laws, regulations and compliance requirements binding on the Company) and to reduce the incidence of fraudulent claims, in the public interest and with a view to limiting premiums. The Policyholder and or Insured person, on his own behalf and on behalf of any person he represents herein, hereby waives any right to privacy in any insurance information provided by him or on his behalf in respect of any insurance policy or claim made or lodged by him and he consents to such information being disclosed to any other party (including any subsidiary or parent company of the Company as well as any government or regulatory authority) who has a direct interest in the information disclosed by the Policyholder / Insured Person / his agent.

The Policyholder / Insured Person also acknowledges that the information provided by him may be verified against any other legitimate sources or databases and waives any rights of privacy and consent to the disclosure of any information relevant to any insurance policy or claim concerning him.

7. Liability

7.1. The Company shall not be liable or responsible for:

- a. the negligence, wrongful acts and/or omissions of any legal and/or health care professional or any other person or persons or legal entity that provide direct or indirect service to the Insured Person;
- b. the failure of any agent or broker to explain adequately the terms, conditions, endorsements, terminations and exclusions of this Policy.

7.2. Should any discrepancies arise between this Policy and any literature received by the Insured Person, the Terms, Conditions, Endorsements, Terminations and Exclusions in this Policy will govern in all cases.

8. Language

The official version of this Policy is in English. Words in the singular include the plural and vice versa and words in the masculine gender include the feminine gender.

9. Marketing

Should any discrepancies arise between the Policy and any literature received by the Insured Person, the Terms, Conditions, Endorsements, Terminations and Exclusions in the Master Policy will govern in all cases. Any Insured Person may inspect the Master Policy at any time by arrangement with the policyholder.

10. Medical and Related Expenses

This policy will not provide indemnity for Medical and Related Expenses which are incurred arise from or relate directly or indirectly to any Medical Treatment, advice or any other related medical services provided and or incurred in South Africa. This is not a medical scheme and the cover is not the same as that of a medical scheme. This policy is not a substitute for medical scheme membership.

11. Misrepresentation

This Policy shall be voidable (at the discretion of the Company) in the event of misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure by or on behalf of the Insured Person of any information material to this Policy.

12. Other financial products and services

The Company will accept no liability whatsoever for any of the insurance or other financial products or services which are sold in conjunction with this Policy that are provided or underwritten by any other insurance or assurance companies and/or assistance companies and/or financial providers.

13. Other insurance

Except for 2. Accidental death and disability, if the Insured Person is able to claim under any other policies to be covered for the whole or any part of an Insured Event ("Other Claims"), the Company will only be liable to pay its pro rata portion of the claim submitted in terms of this Policy.

13.1 If in the Company's discretion it decides to pay the claim in full, then it will not be obliged to make payment unless the Insured Person cedes to the Company all of their rights in respect of the Other Claims.

13.2 If the Company has already paid benefits in terms of this Policy, all of the Insured Person's rights in respect of the Other Claims will be ceded automatically to the Company.

13.3 A cession in terms of 13.1 or 13.2 above will allow the Company to do all things necessary to claim against the other insurer or company and institute legal proceedings against that other insurer or company if the Other Claim is not paid.

13.4 Without limiting any provision of this Policy or any legal obligation, the Insured Person must cooperate fully with the Company in relation to the Other Claim or legal proceedings including:

- a. not doing anything to prejudice or limit the Company's rights;
- b. giving the Company whatever information and documents it may require;
- c. signing any document or affidavit that the Company may request to enable it to exercise its rights.

d. The Insured Person authorises the Company to contact its household insurers, medical insurers, other insurers or any liable third parties (airlines, cruise companies etc) regarding a contribution to a valid claim.

14. Payment of benefits

This Policy is between the Company and the Insured Person only and all of its provisions and conditions are for the sole and exclusive benefit of those parties. Nothing in this Policy, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other person any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under this Policy or any of its provisions. Without limitation, no third party shall have any rights under this Policy or any right to receive Policy benefits.

Receipt of Benefits paid as follows will be a valid discharge of the Company's liability under this Policy:

14.1 For Emergency Medical and Related Expenses on an International Journey, the benefit will be paid to the provider of such Medical Expenses.

14.2 This Policy cannot be ceded, assigned or in any way transferred to a third party. Benefits shall be payable only to the Insured Person or his legal representative.

15. Public Conveyance tickets

The Company has the right to utilise the Insured Person's Public Conveyance ticket to offset the Company's expenses.

16. Schedule of Benefits

The Schedule of Benefits referred to in this policy wording is the Schedule of Benefits used in this policy wording and in the marketing material. The policy wording is to be read in conjunction with the Schedule of Benefits and vice versa.

17. South African Law

This Policy will be governed by the laws of South Africa and its courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to the exclusion of the courts of any other country.

18. Subrogation

The Company has the right to commence or take over legal proceedings in the Insured Person's name for the defence or settlement of any claim, or to sue or prosecute any other party to recover monies payable by them at law. The Insured Person must co-operate with the Company and do nothing to hinder the Company's rights.

19. Tax or imposts

The onus will always be on the Insured Person to ensure, correctly admit and pay any tax liability in consideration of any benefit being paid that may incur tax or imposts of any nature.

20. Residence Limitation

This policy offers coverage only to individuals ordinarily resident in the Republic of South Africa and is null and void as to non-residents of the Republic of South Africa.

Claims condition

1. Compliance

The Insured Person must follow the Company's advice or instruction otherwise the Company may decline to pay the whole or any part of the claim.

2. Notification

If the Insured Person wants the Company to pay for any benefit in excess of R5,000, AIG Travel must be contacted and their prior written agreement must be obtained. If not approved by AIG Travel, the Company's liability could be limited to R5,000 for any one Insured Event.

3. Legal action

If the Company denies liability for any claim and the Insured Person does not institute legal action and serve summons on the Company (or initiate arbitration proceedings if the Company has agreed to submit to arbitration) within 12 months after such repudiation, all benefits of such claim shall be forfeited.

4. Notice of claim and proof of loss

4.1 The Insured Person must give the Company notice in writing:

- a. within 90 days of an Accident which may give rise to a claim under section 2 of this Policy. Any benefit related to death will only be payable if the Company receives written notification of the death within 30 days. The Company shall have the right to have a post mortem examination of the body conducted.
- b. within 30 days of any other occurrence which may give rise to a claim under this Policy.

4.2 The Insured Person must, at its own cost, provide whatever certificates, information and documented evidence is required by the Company regarding the Insured Event.

5. Recoveries

All recoveries net of the Company's actual recovery costs will be distributed firstly to the Company for all amounts paid and any remainder will be paid to the Insured Person.

6. Fraudulent Claims

If the Insured Person, or anyone acting on his behalf use any fraudulent means or devices to obtain any benefit, then any amount payable in respect of such claim shall be forfeited.

7. General

7.1 The Insured Person shall submit to medical examination at the expense of the Company as often as shall be required in connection with any claim. Any report generated as a result of such examination shall be the property of the Company and shall be deemed to be confidential information of the Company.

7.2 Medical Treatment shall be sought and followed promptly on the occurrence of an Injury or Illness and the Company shall not be liable for that part of any claim which in the opinion of a Medical Practitioner arises from the unreasonable or wilful neglect or failure of any Insured Person to seek and remain under the care of a qualified Medical Practitioner.

7.3 All claims arising from criminal incidents are to be supported and accompanied by a certified police report.

7.4 The due observance and fulfilment of the Policy insofar as it relates to anything being done or complied with by the Insured Person, shall be a condition precedent to liability to make any payment under this Policy.

7.5 The Company shall have the right to access any current or prior medical records of the Insured Person in order to finalise and/or proceed with the assessment of a claim and/or render medical assistance. By virtue of this clause, the Insured Person shall be deemed to have given the Company written consent to access any of the Insured Person's current or prior medical records.

7.6 No amount payable in terms of this Policy shall bear any interest.

9. in excess of R1,000 for either physiotherapy or chiropractic treatment, unless confined to a Hospital

2. Accidental death and disability

2.1 In-flight / Public conveyance cover

If an Insured Person sustains an Injury resulting in an Insured Event described in the Table of Benefits below, the Company will pay the Insured Person or his legal representative the compensation as stated in the Table of Benefits below to the limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits.

Cover applies if an Insured Person sustains Injury any time during the period of an Insured Journey while riding in or upon, boarding or alighting from any Public Conveyance being used as a means of air transportation.

Cover applies any time during the period of an Insured Journey other than when covered under 2.2 24 hour cover.

2.2 24 hour cover

If an Insured Person sustains an Injury resulting in an Insured Event described in the Table of Benefits below, the Company will pay the Insured Person or his legal representative the compensation as stated in the Table of Benefits below to the limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits.

If an Insured Person disappears and after 24 consecutive calendar months it is reasonable for the Company to believe that he may have died due to an Injury, the Company will pay the benefit subject to receipt of a signed undertaking by his Beneficiary that such compensation shall be refunded if it is later demonstrated that he did not die as a result of an Injury. This written undertaking will be required at the point where this benefit becomes payable.

2.3 Terrorism extension

Insured event	Compensation expressed as a percentage of the sum insured
Death
1. As a result of an Accident	100%
2. Disappearance	100%
3. Death as a direct result of exposure to the elements of nature as a direct result of an Accident	100%
Permanent Total Disability
1. As a result of an Accident	100%
2. Permanent Total Disability as a direct result of exposure to the elements of nature as a direct result of an Accident	100%

Accidental death and disability: specific conditions

1. The Company will not pay for any benefit in respect of:
 - a. Permanent Total Disability except on submission of satisfactory proof to the Company that the disablement will in all probability continue for the remainder of an Insured Person's life;
 - b. more than 100% of the sum insured when more than one Injury arises from the same Accident;
 - c. more than one category for more than 100% of the sum insured. The benefit payable will be the highest in the appropriate category.
2. If the Insured Person sustains Permanent Total Disability and the claim in relation to that disability is admitted and accepted, the benefit will be paid and all cover under this Section 2 in respect of such Insured Person shall cease.
3. The diagnosis and determination of Permanent Total Disability must be made and documented by a Medical Practitioner and must be continuous and permanent for at least 12 consecutive months from the onset of the disablement.
4. If the Insured Person's existing ailment, infirmity or other abnormal physical or mental condition is aggravated by an Accident, the Benefit amount will be determined by the degree of the deterioration of the existing ailment after the Accident and the Benefit will be paid accordingly. The degree of ailment, infirmity or other abnormal physical or mental condition before the Accident will be determined by medical evidence.

5. If the consequences of an Accident are aggravated owing to an Insured Person's existing ailment, infirmity or other abnormal physical or mental condition, determination of the benefit will be based on the consequences the Accident would have had, had such defects not existed. The foregoing shall not apply, however, if such circumstances are a consequence of an earlier Accident to the Insured Person, for which benefit has been or will be paid under this Policy.
6. If an Insured Person dies of natural causes prior to the final disablement assessment relating to an Insured Event, the Company will pay what reasonably would have had to be paid for such Permanent Disability in accordance with Specific Condition 1(b) above.
7. In the event of death of Children, the benefit payable will be subject to the amount legislated by law at the time of the death.
8. Children are excluded from any benefit for occupational disability under Permanent Total Disability.

3. Motor hijack extension

3.1 Personal accident

The Period of Insurance for Accidental death and disability is extended to 8 hours before the scheduled departure time of a Public Conveyance and 8 hours after the scheduled time of arrival back in South Africa specifically for Motor Hijack with benefits limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits in respect of an International Journey.

3.2 Post traumatic stress disorder therapy

The Company will pay the amount in the Schedule of Benefits for therapy to treat Post Traumatic Stress Disorder which was caused solely by a Motor Hijack which occurred 8 hours before the scheduled departure time of a Public Conveyance and 8 hours after the scheduled time of arrival back in South Africa in respect of an International Journey.

4. Baggage, money, credit cards & travellers cheques, fraud and baggage Delay

4.1 Baggage delay

The Company will reimburse the Insured Person for reasonable essential expenses incurred, for the emergency replacement of essential items if his baggage is delayed, misdirected or temporarily misplaced by a carrier. The baggage delay must exceed the Excess.

4.2 Theft of money, credit cards & travellers cheques

1. Money

The Company will pay for the Insured Person's loss of cash, bank or currency notes, cheques, postal or money orders or other negotiable instruments as a result of Theft during an Insured Journey. In respect of money secured for the purpose of the Insured Journey, cover shall commence at the time of collection from the bank or 72 hours prior to the start of the Insured Journey, whichever occurs first, and shall continue for 72 hours after termination of the Insured Journey or until deposited at the bank, whichever occurs first.

2. Credit Card & Travellers Cheques Replacement

The Company will pay the non-recoverable cost of replacing the Insured Person's credit cards or travellers cheques as a result of Theft.

3. Fraud

The Company will pay the Insured Person's legal liability for payment arising out of the unauthorised use of the Insured Person's Travel documents, credit cards or Insured travellers cheques following Theft during an Insured Journey by any person other than the Insured Person's Relative or Insured Person's Travel Companion, up to the amount stated in the Schedule of Benefits.

4.3 Theft, damage or accidental loss of baggage

The Company may choose to replace, repair or pay for the loss, in cash, as a result of the Theft or Damage to the Insured Person's accompanying Baggage, including suitcases, trunks, hand baggage as well as their contents, portable Business equipment (including computers, cellular phones), Business property (including trade samples, Business papers, specifications, manuscripts and stationery for the cost of reproducing such documents but not for the research and development costs) that occurred during the Insured Journey. The Baggage, Personal Effects and Business property must be owned by and accompany the Insured Person.

Baggage, money, credit cards & travellers cheques, fraud and baggage delay: specific conditions

1. The maximum amount the Company will pay is the amount stated in the Schedule of Benefits, unless otherwise specified in the Specific Conditions relating to this section.
2. To account for wear and tear the Company will pay a maximum of 75% of the replacement value for items purchased more than 12 months prior to the Insured Journey, decreasing thereafter at 10% per year from date of purchase.
3. The basis of settlement for items purchased within the 12 months prior to the Insured Journey or whilst on the Insured Journey will be the replacement value of items determined at the Company's discretion.
4. The Insured Person shall, in respect of Baggage, Travel Documents, Money and Credit Cards which may become the subject of a claim:
 - a. exercise all reasonable care for the safety, security and supervision thereof at all times and must not leave property unattended in a public place or in any unlocked vehicle, room or building;
 - b. endeavour to minimise any loss;
 - c. not abandon any Baggage, Travel Documents, Money and Credit Cards.
5. It is a condition of payment that loss or damage attributable to Theft or Damage by carriers be reported to the local police or appropriate authority as soon as possible after discovery of the loss and that a written acknowledgement of the report be obtained.
6. A camera and/or video camera, its lenses and accessories shall be regarded as one item.
7. Sports equipment sets shall be deemed to be one item.
8. The repair or replacement cost of a cellular phone and any fittings or accessories (all deemed to be a single item) shall be limited to R500 per Insured Person over and above any applicable Excess.
9. In respect of jewellery claims, original or certified copies of valuation certificates issued prior to the commencement of the Insured Journey are required. This condition is applicable to all jewellery including gifts and inherited items.
10. Contact lenses, prescription spectacles or sunglasses are limited to a maximum of R500 per pair over and above any applicable Excess.
11. Any loss of credit cards, travellers cheques or travel documents must be reported within 24 hours to the issuing authority and the appropriate cancellation measures taken. The onus will be on the Insured Person to prove that the Company was not prejudiced in any way by late reporting.

12. Cash, documents and/or jewellery must be carried on the Insured Person or lodged in safety deposit at the time of loss.
13. Reasonable measures to save and recover baggage must have been taken by any Insured Person.

In respect of Baggage Delay:

14. Confiscation or requisition by customs or other government authority cannot form the basis of a claim for loss or expenses.
15. Claims in respect of essential clothing or requisites purchased as a result of delayed baggage will only be considered if items have been purchased within 4 days after the actual arrival time at the intended destination.
16. If baggage appears to be delayed or lost at the destination airport, the Insured Person must formally notify the relevant carrier airline immediately.

Baggage, money, credit cards & travellers cheques, fraud and baggage delay: specific exclusions

The Company will not be liable for:

1. damage or loss arising from electrical or mechanical breakdown of any item; or
2. damage to or replacement of any electronic data or software; or

12. any goods intended for sale or trade; or
13. household furniture and household appliances, non-portable property, computer or electronic equipment unless acquired during the Insured Journey for personal use; or
14. Accidental Loss of sports equipment and tools and/or Damage to sports equipment and tools whilst in use.

5. Travel delay and travel missed connection

5.1 Travel delay

The Company will reimburse the Insured Person for reasonable essential expenses incurred, and for such amount incurred above the Excess, following unforeseen travel delay resulting from:

1. Accidental Loss or Theft of travel documents (travel tickets, passports and visas).
2. An accident or mechanical/electrical breakdown involving the transport in which he arranged to travel or was travelling for the purpose of reaching the Point of Departure and/or departure point from which he had intended commencing an onward journey.

3. Delay of a scheduled departure of a Public Conveyance due to:
 - a. industrial dispute, strike or action; or
 - b. adverse weather conditions including cyclones, tornados, floods, typhoons, blizzards, or natural disasters in the country to or through which he is travelling; or
 - c. mechanical/electrical breakdown; or
 - d. public transports services failure.

Travel delay: specific conditions

The travel delay must exceed the Excess.

Travel delay: specific exclusions

The Company will not pay for expenses incurred:

1. where comparable alternative onward transportation has been made available to the Insured Person within the Excess after the scheduled departure time of a booked flight or within the Excess after an actual flight arrival (in the case of a connecting flight); or
2. where the Insured Person fails to check in according to the itinerary supplied, unless such failure was due to a strike or industrial action; or
3. where the delay is due to industrial dispute, strike or action which existed or for which advance notice had been given on or before the date on which the Insured Journey commenced; or
4. where the delay is due to the withdrawal from service temporarily or permanently of any Public Conveyance on the orders or recommendation of any Port Authority or the Civil Aviation Authority or any similar body in any country in which advance notice had been given on or before the date on which the Insured Journey commenced; or
5. for carrier caused delays where the cost of expenses is recoverable from the carrier.

5.2 Travel missed connection

The Company will reimburse the Insured Person for reasonable essential expenses incurred if he misses an onward travel connection at the transfer point during an International Journey due to the late arrival of his incoming confirmed connecting scheduled conveyance and no onward transportation is available to him within 6 consecutive hours of his arrival or any circumstances beyond his control. The Company will indemnify the Insured Person for reasonable essential expenses incurred.

Travel missed connection: specific conditions

The delay as a result of the missed connection must exceed the Excess.

Travel missed connection: specific exclusions

The Company shall not be liable:

1. for any loss arising from failure of the Insured Person to check in according to the itinerary supplied to him, and he must obtain written confirmation from the common carrier or their handling agents of the number of hours delayed and the reasons for the delay.
2. for any loss that is covered by any other existing insurance scheme, government programme or which will be paid or refunded by a hotel, airline, travel agent or any other provider of travel or accommodation.
3. where the delay is due to industrial dispute, strike or action which existed, or for which advance notice had been given, on or before the date on which the Insured Journey commenced

6. Personal liability

The Company will pay all damages, compensation and legal expenses for which the Insured Person becomes legally liable as a result of his actions causing:

1. Injury, including resultant death, of another person;
2. loss of or damage to property.

Personal liability: specific conditions

1. It is a condition of payment that the Insured Person not admit fault or liability to any other person without the Company's prior written consent.
2. No offer, promise, payment or indemnity may be made by the Insured Person without the Company's prior written consent.
3. The Insured Person must give the Company written notice with full particulars of an event that may give rise to a claim within 30 days of the conclusion of an Insured Journey.
4. Every letter, writ, summons and process must be forwarded to the Company as soon as possible.
5. The Company is entitled to take over the defence and settlement of claim in the name of the Insured Person for the Company's benefit. The Company shall have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and settlement of the claim.
6. The Company may at any time pay the Insured Person the amount for which a claim can be settled less any damages already paid. The Company will then be under no further liability other than for costs and expenses incurred prior to making such payment.
7. No indemnity will be provided for legal liability arising from Injury or loss as a result of any wilful or malicious act of the Insured Person.

Personal liability: specific exclusions

The Company will not pay damages, compensation or legal expenses in respect of any liability directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with:

1. Injury to the Insured Person or to any member of his family ordinarily residing with him; or
2. injury to the Insured Person or his employees arising out of or in the course of employment; or
3. loss of or damage to property owned by or in control of the Insured Person or any member of his family ordinarily residing with him; or
4. the ownership, possession or use by or on behalf of the Insured Person of any caravan, mechanically propelled vehicle (other than golf carts and motorised wheelchairs), aircraft or other aerial device, hovercraft (other than hand-propelled or sailing craft in territorial waters) or animals; or
5. loss of or damage to property or Injury arising out of the Insured Person's profession, Business or trade, or out of professional advice given by him; or
6. any contract unless such liability would have arisen in the absence of that contract; or
7. judgements which are not in the first instance either delivered by or obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction within South Africa or the country in which the event occurred giving rise to the Insured Person's liability; or
8. any claim for fines, penalties, punitive, exemplary, aggravated or vindictive damages.

7. Cancellation and curtailment

7.1 Cancellation

The Company will reimburse the non-refundable unused portion of travel or accommodation costs paid by the Insured Person following necessary cancellation and/or Postponement of the Insured Journey prior to departure due to:

1. The Insured Person's unexpected death, illness or Injury or the unexpected death, illness or Injury of his Spouse, Business Associate, Children, the person with whom he had intended to stay abroad, a Relative or Travel Companion.
2. Non availability of the person that is in charge of the Insured Person's minor or disabled Children due to such person's unexpected death, illness or Injury within 30 days prior to the date of the Insured Journey.

3. Cancellation or diversion of scheduled public transport services, including by reason of strikes or other industrial action, unless there was media warning before the date the particular Insured Journey was booked that such events were likely to occur; or
4. Serious or considerable accidental material damage to immovable property owned by the Insured Person caused within 30 days of the intended date of departure. The cause of such damage must be unintentional, not as a direct result of any action of the Insured Person and require him to cancel the Insured Journey for the safeguarding of his interests.
5. Theft or complete immobilisation of the Insured Person's Private Motor Vehicle at the moment of departure or during the trip towards the destination due to a traffic accident, fire or as a result of a hijacking.
6. Delay in reaching the place of embarkation for any Public Conveyance operating on land, air or water as a result of immobilisation of more than one hour due to a traffic accident or circumstances beyond one's control ("Act of God") during the trip towards the place of embarkation.
7. A Traumatic Event occurring within 30 days of the date of departure to the Insured Person, his Spouse, Children or the person abroad with whom he intended to stay, a Relative or Business Associate where medical advice has been sought and he has been advised not to travel.
8. Loss or Theft of travel documents (travel tickets, passports and visas).

7.2 Curtailment

The Company will reimburse the Insured Person the non-refundable unused portion of travel or accommodation costs or additional accommodation and/or travel expenses (excluding telephone costs, meals and beverages) paid by the Insured Person following necessary Curtailment (shortening and/or alteration) of the Insured Journey due to:

1. His unexpected death, Illness or Injury or the unexpected death, Illness or Injury of his Spouse, Business Associate, Children, the person with whom he had intended to stay abroad, a Relative or Travel Companion.
2. Cancellation or diversion of scheduled public transport services, including by reason of strikes or other industrial action, unless there was media warning before the date the particular Insured Journey was booked that such events were likely to occur; or
3. Loss or Theft of travel documents (travel tickets, passports and visas).

Curtailment: specific condition

It is a condition that should the Insured Person need to return to the Point of Departure for any reason, AIG Travel must be contacted beforehand to make the travel arrangements.

Cancellation and curtailment: specific exclusions

The Company will not pay for any expenses arising directly or indirectly out of:

1. financial circumstances or insolvency; or
2. the Insured Person not being in possession of the required or valid or correct travel documents or visas; or
3. carrier caused delays where the cost of the expenses are recoverable from the carrier; or
4. any Business or employment commitment or financial or contractual obligation of the Insured Person or any other person on whom the Insured Journey depends; or
5. any change of plans or disinclination on the part of the Insured Person or any other person to travel on an Insured Journey; or
6. the inability of any tour operator or wholesaler to complete arrangements for any tour due to a deficiency in the required number of persons to commence any tour or travel; or
7. defective or bad condition of the Private Motor Vehicle planned to be used for the Insured Journey; or
8. lock-out or prohibitive regulation by the court of any country; or

9. adverse weather conditions including cyclones, tornadoes, floods, typhoons, blizzards or other natural disasters at the destination.

7.3 Visa protection extension

The Company will reimburse the non-refundable unused portion of travel or accommodation costs paid by the Insured Person following necessary cancellation or Postponement of an Insured Journey as a result of an Insured Person not being in possession of the required visa.

Visa protection: specific conditions

1. The Insured Person must hold a valid South African passport.
2. The passport must remain valid for a period of 6 months after returning from the Insured Journey.
3. The passport must have a minimum of 2 adjacent pages for Visa stamps.
4. Failure to apply for a Visa in time will not be covered.
5. It is the Insured Persons responsibility to submit all relevant documentation as per the Embassy/Consulate when applying for a Visa.
6. The Visa Protection Top Up must be purchased at the time of booking/payment and can only be purchased up to 14 days prior to departure.
7. A return ticket must be purchased in order to qualify for cover.
8. The policy is paid out upon submission of a Visa Denied notification from the Embassy – this notification must be sent to AIG within 7 working days of receipt of denied notification.

Visa protection: specific exclusions

The Company will not pay for any expenses arising directly or indirectly from:

1. The Insured Person wilfully misrepresenting material facts or committing fraud; or
2. Insured Persons who have been denied entrance into a country before; or
3. Failure of the Insured Person to submit information or supporting documents; or
4. Insured Person with a criminal record.

8. Ticket upgrade

The Company will reimburse the Insured Person for the essential upgrade of a conveyance ticket during an International Journey due to:

1. the delay of his confirmed scheduled conveyance and if no onward transportation is available to him within 6 consecutive hours of the scheduled departure time; or
2. the Insured Person not being admitted to a confirmed scheduled conveyance due to overbooking and if no other means of transport is made available to him within 6 hours after the scheduled time of departure of the scheduled conveyance; or
3. the Insured Person missing an onward travel connection at the transfer point during an International Journey due to the late arrival of his incoming confirmed connecting scheduled conveyance and no onward transportation is available to him within 6 consecutive hours of his arrival.

Ticket upgrade: specific condition

Written proof of delay from the transport provider must be submitted with any claim and the Company's liability is subject to it receiving original receipts for the expenses incurred.

Ticket upgrade: specific exclusions

The Company shall not be liable:

1. for any loss arising from failure of the Insured Person to check in according to the itinerary supplied to him, and he must obtain written confirmation from the common carrier or their handling agents of the number of hours delayed and the reasons for the delay.
2. for any loss that is covered by any other existing insurance scheme, government programme or which will be paid or refunded by a hotel, airline, travel agent or any other provider of travel or accommodation.
3. where the delay is due to industrial dispute, strike or action which existed, or for which advance notice had been given, on or before the date on which the Insured Journey commenced.

9. Cattery and kennels

The Company will reimburse the Insured Person for extra kennel or cattery fees incurred as a result of the unavoidable delay of more than 24 hours at the end of his International Journey due to circumstances beyond his control.

Cattery and kennels: specific conditions

1. The travel delay must exceed the Excess.
2. Written proof of delay from the transport provider must be submitted with any claim and the Company's liability is subject to it receiving original receipts for the expenses incurred.

10. Natural disaster

Natural disaster: specific conditions

1. the Insured person must give the Company a written statement from an appropriate public authority confirming the reason and nature of the disaster and how long it lasted and the Company's liability is subject to it receiving original receipts for the essential expenses incurred.
2. any event that results in a claim under this section must not have been known about before the Insured Person left from his Point of Departure.

Natural disaster: specific exclusions

The Company shall not be liable for:

1. any expense the Insured Person can recover from any tour operator, airline, hotel or other service provider.
2. any expenses the Insured Person would normally have to pay during the period.
3. any claim directly resulting from the Insured Person travelling against the advice of the appropriate national or local authority.

11. Identity theft

In the event of Identity Theft which takes place on an International Journey we will pay for:

1. Reasonable legal expenses incurred by an Insured Person as a direct result of Identity Theft in
 - a. defending any Suit brought against an Insured Person by a creditor or collection agency or someone acting on their behalf;
 - b. removing any civil or criminal judgment wrongfully entered against an Insured Person; and
 - c. challenging the accuracy or completeness of any information in a consumer credit report, provided this information is inaccurate and falsely provided to the credit agency or financial institution.
2. Income lost by an Insured Person due solely to time taken from an Insured Person's Business, other than if an Insured Person is self employed, but not including compensation for whole or partial unpaid workdays, but not for vacation days or sick days provided that these unpaid workdays are taken whilst on an International Journey or within 3 months of return to the Point of Departure.
3. An Insured Person's actual loss for the legal obligation to pay a creditor if, as part of your Identity Theft, any Payment Cards, bank accounts, and other credit accounts were opened in your name without your authorization.
4. The following miscellaneous expenses:
 - a. costs incurred for re-filing applications for loans or other credit or debit accounts that are rejected solely because the lender received incorrect information;
 - b. costs for notarizing documents related to Identity Theft, long distance telephone calls, and certified mail reasonably incurred as a result of efforts to report an Identity Theft or to correct financial and credit records that have been altered;
 - c. costs incurred to contest the accuracy or completeness of any credit history information;
 - d. costs incurred by an Insured Person for a maximum of 4 (four) credit reports from an entity approved by us. The credit reports shall be requested during the Insured Journey or within 3 months of return to the Point of Departure. The first credit report may not be requested until after the discovery of the Identity Theft.

Identity theft: specific conditions

1. An Insured Person is responsible for paying the Excess shown on the Schedule of Benefits for each and every claim.
2. The account must have been opened in an Insured Person's name without the authorization of the Insured Person.
3. The Insured Person must notify relevant law enforcement agencies and file a police report within 24-hours of discovering the Identity Theft.
4. Any false charge or withdrawal must be verified by the Insured Person's financial institution. Cover for false charges is limited to the amount for which an Insured Person is held liable by the financial institution subject to the maximum amount shown in the Schedule of Benefits.
5. We shall be permitted to inspect relevant books and financial records.
6. You will cooperate with us and help us to enforce any legal rights an Insured Person or the Company may have in relation to Identity Theft including attendance at depositions, hearings and trials, and giving evidence as necessary to resolve the Identity Theft.
7. An Insured Person must:
 - a. Notify relevant bank(s), Payment Card company(s), financial institution(s) and other accounts of the Identity Theft within 24 hours of discovering the Identity Theft;
 - b. If an Insured Person makes a claim for lost wages, proof of unpaid days off must be provided by the employer and you must have this information notarized and provide proof that it was necessary to take time away from work;
 - c. Send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses, complaints, or legal papers received in connection with a covered loss; and
 - d. Take all reasonable and prudent action to prevent further identity damage.

Identity theft: specific exclusions

The Company will not be liable for loss caused by or resulting either directly or indirectly from or involving:

1. Any dishonest, criminal, malicious or fraudulent acts committed by an Insured Person or a Relative, or that an Insured Person or a Relative had knowledge of or planned, or if an Insured Person withholds information or conceal material facts related to an Identity Theft.
2. Losses that result from Business pursuits.
3. Fraudulent Payment Card charges and bank transfer charges if they are not related to Identity Theft.
4. Identity Theft that occurred or commenced whilst an Insured Person is not on an International Journey.
5. The reimbursement of fees for stolen Payment Cards if an Insured Person has not complied with all terms and conditions under which the cards were issued.
6. Monetary losses other than the out-of-pocket expenses related to resolving the Identity Theft as contemplated by this policy including fraudulent Payment Card charges.

12. End supplier insolvency
